Jaycees Do OK At Harbor

PAHOKEE — Jaycees took over operation of Pahokee Harbor last weekend and in the first few days of operation "have more than made expenses," according to Oscar Dobrow, president of the Jaycees' Pahokee Marina Corp.

Jaycees have had rough going in marshalling finances to exercise the lease on the only protected harbor on Lake Okechobee proper. And they've heard plenty of opposition from certain quarters of the city, particularly as to admission fees on the breakwater itself.

Dobrow said the Marina board met this week and agreed to waive admission fees for spectators on the breakwater. Those who fish from the breakwater will pay 25 cents per day if they are adults, with a 15-cent-per-day fee for children under 12. Monthly admission tickets also are available at lower rates.

Jaycees had their first trans-lake overnight customer on Sunday, and although the boat owner spent the night aboard his craft, it is believed he spent about $10 in the city before departing the following morning. Capt. Larry Wheeler, new boatmaster who was made a temporary deputy policeman Monday, reports fishing for speckled perch from the breakwater has been especially good, as has been the fishing for big black bass out in the lake.

Butchers Claim 70% of Cattle

BELLE GLADE — Demand for slaughter stock was high this week as the market for live cattle was weak. About 70 percent of the offering at Monday's sale destined for the butcher block, Manager George C. Young said.

A total of 822 cattle brought $66,291.45, with slaughter cows bringing up to 50 cents per cwt. more than a week ago. Sold were 87 calves, 27 yearlings, 31 heifers, 115 cows, 550 steers, 11 bulls. Also sold was one goat, a rarity at the market. Sale summary:

Postmaster Gives Tips On How To Mail Christmas Gifts — Early!

BY E. A. JENSEN
Pahokee Postmaster

Another Christmas Season is rapidly approaching, and with it the annual flood of Christmas mailings. In order to be able to handle your mailings satisfactorily, your Post Office personnel would like to offer the following facts and suggestions:

SHOP AND MAIL EARLY. This sounds like "old stuff," but it is more necessary now than ever before. Our allowance for clerical help this Christmas is lower than it has been for several years, although our business will probably run at least 10 percent higher than last year.

A similar condition exists all through the Postal Service, and delivery of mail can only be made with the full cooperation of the public in spreading their mailings over as long a period as possible.

New Medical Clinic Planned In Pahokee Gets Tax Exemption

PAHOKEE — City Council promised a 10-year tax exemption for a proposed new $35,000 medical clinic, and endorsed many recommendations submitted by Pahokee Marina Corp. for the operation of Pahokee Harbor, at Monday night's regular meeting.

In other major action, by a majority vote the council accepted and officially closed the 1956 city tax roll, Councilman Loren Meredith casting the lone negative vote, on the basis he hadn't been present when the council sat as a Board of Equalization earlier.

Attending the Monday meeting were Mayor F. S. Parrish, Council President George Tucker Jr., and Councilmen Blanche L. Armstrong, John Hatton and Meredith.

Dr. E. C. Johnson made application for the tax exemption on the medical clinic. It will be located east of Lake Avenue between 3rd and 4th streets and would bring another physician to Pahokee, he said.

The council read a draft of a proposed tax exemption ordinance which will be presented at the next meeting for official discussion. It calls for exemptions for commercial buildings only, in certain zones, and for buildings of 25,000 sq. ft. or costing $25,000 to build. Definite action on Dr. Johnson's proposed building will also be taken up at the next meeting.

Upon Meredith's motion, a five-year tax exemption was granted Elmer "Babs" Uptegrove for his new steak house, with Hatton casting the single negative vote.

On behalf of Jaycees and Pahokee Marina Corp., Dr. Richard Lane submitted recommendations on operating the harbor, which he estimated would bring the city $25,000 on year income, in three years' time.

In other action, the council accepted the bid for a new police cruiser, from Okeechobee Motor Co., Okeechobee, represented by Frank Rozelle. The bid was for $855 net, with a

WANT SUNDAY OKAY ON BEER

SOUTH BAY — Requests to beer after p.m. on Sundays at their respective restaurants were made Monday night at the regular meeting of the city council, by Ray Whitlock and Nick Ballas.

Councilmen tabled action on the requests until the council meets again in two weeks.

The council accepted a bid to buy a new police cruiser from Glades Chevrolet Co., Belle Glade, for $1,970, plus an allowance of $300 for trade-in of a '52 Mercury.

City Clerk Alvin B. Crowe reported a survey team of Pre-witt & Nall in Clewiston is making a survey of the city for an official map and will place permanent survey markers throughout the city.

Accepted recommendations of a farmers' committee on fees and regulations of labor loading zones in the Negro section.

OKAYED Councilman Meredith's motion that night policeman wages be raised to $75 per week, effective immediately.

BELLE GLADE — Bulb-scratchers will be targets of Rainbow Girls in a sale of light bulbs drive started this week.

To help defray organization expenses the girls are selling special "C-E-Z" bulbs which are tinted green to soften glare. They may be bought by phoning WY 6-3223.

Moon, Gillis Are Promoted At Bank

PAHOKEE — New official capacities for two members of the staff at Bank of Pahokee were announced this week by Harry M. McIntosh, president.

Julius T. Moon has been named assistant vice president of the bank, and Franklin E. Gillis is now assistant cashier, McIntosh said.

The appointments were made at a meeting of the board of directors of the bank.

RITES HELD FOR GEO. McLARTY

Services for George Claude McLarty Jr., 25, who was drowned Friday morning, were held Sunday afternoon at the Pahokee First Methodist Church with Father John C. Petrie, vicar of St. John the Apostle Episcopal Church, Belle Glade, officiating. Rev. Wayne Owens, pastor, assisted.

Born in West Palm Beach, he lived in this area most of his life except for the time he was in the armed forces. While he was stationed in Korea he received wounds in battle that kept him hospitalized for many months. His amazing vitality and unquenchable good humor, even in time of pain, were an inspiration to all who knew him.

He was a member of the Methodist Church and the American Legion.

Pallbearers were Otis Boland, Edgar Wilder, John Hatton, Sam Williams, Perry Duke and Sam McKinstry Jr.

The American Legion Post 90 served as honor guard.

Interment was in Port Mayaca Cemetery with Wetherington Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Out-of-town relatives and friends attending the funeral services in addition to his immediate family were Mr. and Mrs. Harper Kendrick and daughters, Linda and Marilyn, Bradenton, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Doolittle, Fort Lauderdale; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Robinson Jr., Mrs. Kate Robinson, Mrs. Willette Adair and son, all of Pensacola; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer B. Elliott, Lakeland; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dickson, Auburn, Ala.; Mrs. Jim Doolittle, Fort Lauderdale; Mr. Perrine; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hall, Lake Worth; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Congleton, Belle Glade.

Officials Say Gambling Continues In The Glades

BELLE GLADE — Gambling activities in Glades communities continue despite the county grand jury investigation of several months ago, two of Palm Beach County's top law officials declared here Wednesday night.

On the eve of yesterday's scheduled disbarment hearing for T. Harold Williams, former county solicitor now serving a jail sentence as a result of the grand jury investigation, State Attorney Phil O'Connell and County Solicitor Charles Nugent made that statement concerning Glades gambling, at the regular meeting of the Belle Glade city commission attended by only a handful of citizens.

BG COMM. BUYS 3 NEW AUTOS

BELLE GLADE — City commissioners spent 50 minutes at their Wednesday night meeting conferring with County Solicitor Charles Nugent and State Attorney Phil O'Connell. Then they took up routine matters, with these results:

AUTHORIZED City Manager Robinson to purchase two new police cars and a new auto for his official use, from lowest bids opened at the meeting.

After study, Robinson accepted the Belle Glade Motors bid for two police cars at $2,175.73, including trade-ins on '55 and '56 models, and the Glades Chevrolet bid for the other auto at $1,870.

GAVE OK to Robinson to install an LP gas system on one police car, after his report that managers from some other cities have found they can use police cars twice as long if so equipped.

AUTHORIZED granting a contract price for water service to Florida Vacuum Cooling, which said eventually there would use 1,000,000 gallons of water daily.

REVOKED all free parking permits on metered streets.

GRANTED parking meter rentals to Gus Torrence and Ace Liquors on the basis of annual rental fees of $25.

ACCEPTED recommendations of Planning Board concerning zoning changes, and set hearings for same for Dec. 12 meeting.

AGREED to contract with W. C. Rhodes for two years' auditing service.

APPOINTED H. B. McCall to serve a three-year term as a member of the board of directors of the county RRB.

Allen Is New Committeeman

SOUTH BAY — W. C. Allen has received personal notification from Dan Daniel, National Commander of the American Legion, that he has been appointed to a National Executive Committee of that organization.

His term of office will run from the close of the 1957 fall meeting.

Mr. Allen's appointment is in recognition of his service to the Legion.

BOYS HAVE OUTING

PAHOKEE — Members of the Junior Wildlife Club were given an overnight outing Sunday at Fishbeaking Creek by Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. N. Kennedy and Cleve Crothall.

Plan Thanksgiving Day Services In Most Glades Communities

Thanksgiving Day church services will be held in most Glades communities next Thursday, as residents take time out from busy season activities to make the Spirit of Thanksgiving a reality.

In Canal Point, the Rev. L. A. Sparks will conduct Thursday services at 8 a.m.

In Pahokee, community services will be held at the First Baptist Church at 9 a.m., with the Rev. Wayne Owens, pastor of Pahokee Methodist Church giving the sermon and all Pahokee ministers invited to participate in the service.

Mrs. M. P. Stanley will be organist for the Pahokee observance, and mixed voices from the Baptist and Methodist choirs will offer special music.

South Bay residents will join those in Belle Glade in community services at Everglades Presbyterian Church, with the Thanksgiving Day service to begin at 9:30 a.m.

The Rev. H. E. Garrett, pastor of Community Methodist Church, will deliver the sermon. The Presbyterian church choir will present a special anthem, "Prayer of Thanksgiving," by Krumer, under the direction of Mrs. Z. T. Ingram, organist.

TNT: BELLE GLADE VS. PAHOKEE

CHIEF BLUE DEVIL

Glades football teams will lower the season's curtain next Wednesday night when Belle Glade invades Pahokee. But madcap merriment in the two arch-rival schools will begin earlier.

Pahokee high will stage a downtown parade at 3 p.m. Wednesday, accompanied by the band and a pep band, and enthusiasm. Each of the upper six grades will have a float in the parade.

The same afternoon in Belle Glade, Golden Ram students will also parade — also to build its school and community spirit to the fever pitch against Pahokee.

Each team will have official "sponsors" to assist their respective captains at the game. Both bands will perform at halftime. And after the contest the winning school will be awarded the Bill Young trophy.

For details on the game, see the story on Page 8.

CURRENTLY .....

Annual Thanksgiving observances take place next Thursday. While we're giving thanks, we should evidence gratefulness for the opportunity to have a political climate in the U.S. which allows religious freedom — and a Thanksgiving Day.

Modern progress is good, but sometimes it leaves us wistful. Remember the old pre-freezer days, when turkey was a Thanksgiving and Christmas feast rarity? Now it's a year-round, any-week commonplace, except for all the trimmings.

Legionnaires in Pahokee and Lions in Canal Point are holding pre-Thanksgiving Turkey Shoots, presumably to the tune of "Turkey In The Straw." No doubt winners will agree that a bird in hand is worth two ... PED —

Political puzzler: With the Glades remaining strongly Democratic as Republicans grow stronger in the rest of the county, will the Glades get more political "juice" to keep it Democratic, or will it be taken for granted? — PED —

BY WIN PENDLETON

PICKING UP THE PIECES— You sure do see a lot of Eisenhower-Nixon bumper strips these days. We don't know how it was in your neighborhood, but where we live they seem to blossom out the day after the election — just like spring flowers.

Another strange thing we have noticed the past week is the large number of our friends who knew all the time exactly how the whole thing was coming out. Only we can't remember hearing any of their wonderful predictions "before" election day. Then, they were just looking wise, saying "anything can happen" and "it wouldn't surprise me either way" and "watch that silent vote" and other such trivia. Most of the time they were merely driving a few nails in the wall to be used in case they might need a hook to hang an alibi on — come Wednesday morning.

It seemed we were alone in thinking that the Democrats had a chance. It's true we put most of our faith on figuring that the Democrats would win the Congress — and that always in modern times, the presidential voting has followed the congressional trend. (It didn't work that way this time, did it?)

And it didn't work the other way either. President Eisenhower's coat-tails weren't long enough or strong enough to drag all of his little "favorites" in with him.

Oh, it's true we were among the millions who suddenly saw the end when Israel marched in to Egypt. But, there's no credit in that. Anybody can see a race when the lead man has "lapped" his nearest rival. We were in Texas those last few days. Late one night, after we had made a "principal address" we were having coffee in the home of our host.

A few friends had been invited over to meet the "speaker." This was Texas — where the Democrats had regained their strength. We decided to have some fun — a straw vote. Twelve persons in the room. And twelve hands went up for President Eisenhower. They looked a bit surprised themselves. And everyone a Democrat.

... what does it prove? Two things are certain. First, President Eisenhower received more votes than Stevenson. Second, more Democrats were elected to the Congress than Republicans.

Does this mean that the Democratic party is the dominant party and that President Eisenhower was elected "in spite" of the Democrats?

Or does this open a new era in American politics, where any candidate can be elected on personal popularity — or advertising? If this is true — and if you carry it down to the local level — it could mean a break down of the party system as we know it.

A candidate would run with a party label in order to get his name on the ballot. But from there on it would become a matter of "soap selling" as the Madison Avenue advertising men have been saying it is. Those fancy-dans in their grey flannel suits have been using this technique in publicizing President Eisenhower and the Republican party for the past four years. Did it work? Or would Mr. Eisenhower have won any way?

The answer to that one will keep the experts busy for awhile. And Washington publicists and public relations men can be expected to make the most of it. So don't be surprised when your favorite Congressman is introduced on TV with a singing commercial. Could be?

How To Keep Your Wife In Shape

"Do you want to keep your wife in shape? Then climb aboard the bandwagon and celebrate SAVE A WIFE WEEK, November 15-24 ... for chances are, by the end of the hectic holidays, your wife will be a nervous, physical wreck. For a simple way to rescue your faithful spouse from such a dire condition, get in a supply of handy, disposable paper plates and put them to work.

And what will they do for her? They'll do away with dishwashing, get her away from the sink and out of the kitchen much sooner. By using white inexpensive utility plates while cooking, work surfaces will remain clean. There'll be no unsightly messes from chopping fruits, vegetables and nuts or from dripping spoons at the stove. A paper plate in the bottom of the garbage can will keep it clean and easy to wash.

And, when it comes to entertaining, paper plates in the six-inch size will make attractive coasters. They'll also substitute for the silent butler when employing waiters. There are also gayly designed snack trays that will prove to be conversation pieces for guests and a boon to the dishwasher. And when unexpected guests drop in and you make the horrible discovery that you have more guests than you have dishes ... use paper plates.

If you have a sick-a-bed old patient, paper plates will not only prove to be the sanitary way out of the dish situation, but they make ready-drawn pictures for youngsters to draw upon. So get in a supply of paper plates both in the white utility plates and in the attractive plastic-coated plates and help SAVE A WIFE.

Beef Cattle Need Mineral Nutrients

GAINESVILLE — Proper mineral nutrition of beef cattle is the subject of an article in the current issue of the University of Florida's experiment station "Research Report."

Author of the article is Herbert L. Chapman Jr., of the Experiment Station in Belle Glade. He states that mineral elements which play a major role in proper beef cattle nutrition include phosphorus, calcium, iron, copper and cobalt. Presence or absence of one nutrient may affect the utilization of another nutrient, he writes.

If cattle are consistently given inadequate mineral mixtures, it is possible that mineral deficiencies will develop in times of stress, such as during gestation and lactation, during periods of low feed intake or during times when mineral intake may be low or entirely stopped, Chapman said.

Elsewhere in the magazine, data is presented on the effect of spraying beef heifers to protect against the spread of brucellosis and tuberculosis. The article states that spraying heifers may be a good practice when a large number of heifers and steers are to be mixed, yet feed lot experiments show that removing ovaries of beef heifers may not be beneficial so far as rate of gain is concerned.

BROWNIE SCOUTS PLAN "COOK-OUT" TOMORROW

Final plans for the cook-out tomorrow will be made at the meeting of Brownie Troop 164 at the Pahokee Methodist Church, Monday afternoon.

Guidance Counselor Mrs. Norma Warren Speaks At BG PTA

Guest speaker at Monday evening's meeting of the Belle Glade PTA was Mrs. Norma Warren, guidance counselor at Lakeland High School. She was introduced by Mrs. R. V. Allison, association vice president and program chairman.

Mrs. Warren outlined the tremendous changes in the American way of life in the past 50 years, and spoke of the problems which result from these changes. At the present time, she stated, one out of every four people in the United States is in school somewhere.

In connection with this fact, she emphasized the great need for more teachers who are dedicated to their work.

As a reminder to parents of their own responsibility, Mrs. Warren likened the home to a laboratory where the child is taught how to live. And it is here, she stated, that the child must learn the four R's—respect, reverence, restraint and responsibility.

Mrs. Warren's talk was preceded by a business session conducted by Mrs. F. C. Dooley, president. She announced that the 1956-57 PTA yearbook, "The Glades Carnival," would be held Dec. 10, at which time the glee club and combined church choir of the city will present Handel's "Messiah." A tableau will also be presented under the direction of Mrs. Ercel Misson.

Clean Now For Leisure Later

Full housecleaning makes good sense. The children, home all summer, have done their share of disheveling the house, so once they're packed off to school you put it back in order. In another month and a half you're faced with pre-holiday cleaning. Why not consolidate your work into one full scale attic-to-cellar job in autumn? Come the holidays, what once was cleaning time can be turned into time for other projects.

Here are the recipes for making an efficient and clean-sweep operation of three of the biggest jobs on the agenda at last week's meeting.

Before storing summer clothes and getting out the family's fall and winter wardrobe, vacuum the closets, walls, floors and ceilings to get rid of all accumulated dust. Scrub with a long-handled brush or mop and a solution of a half cup of sal soda concentrated per bucket of hot water. This will get rid of musty odors that generally collect when a small area is closed up during hot weather.

Wash drapes and slip covers for any soil left in fabric over a period of time weakens fibers. Check for loosening seams and tears first, and repair on the sewing machine. Then to get really bright and new looking, follow the advice of the experts... the operators of the commercial laundrettes: add three tablespoons of sal soda concentrated to the water in your washing machine or tub and just enough soap for suds... less than you'd normally use, for sal soda softens hard water and makes soft water clean better, faster.

That view-impairing film of dust and grease that clouds windows will disappear faster if you wipe the panes down with a damp cloth dipped into a solution of one tablespoon of sal soda concentrated to a bucket of hot water. The sal emulsifies the film of grease which holds the dirt.

Watkings.

Den III meets on Thursdays after school at the elementary school with Mrs. Dave Cunningham and Mrs. G. L. Lannham as den mothers. Den III members are Reid Tillery, Michael Sanders, Keith Aldridge, Eric Davis, Skipper Lannham, Mike Mills, John Pell, Lonny Phillips, Gary Pilon, Randy Jarriel and Jimmy Ray Tucker. Wayne Boynton is den chief.

Den V, which is composed of the boys most advanced in Cub Scouting, meets with den mother Mrs. J. T. Boynton in charge. Their projects are concerned with preparation for becoming Boy Scouts. Members of this group are Chuck Pell, Jimmy Brockett, Billy Mac Sheffield, Bruce Boynton, Roger Simonson, Joe Repper, Dennis Crady, Buddy Culberson and Harry Cunningham.

Den VI has elected Tommy Collier as denner and Tony Penny as assistant denner. Others in Den VI are James Woods, Jack Terry, Steven Wilkinson and David Brooks. Mrs. George Terry is den mother.

Those coming into the club Wednesday as new members were Mrs. Claude Morgan, Mrs. J. L. Layton, Mrs. John Dulany and Mrs. John Padgett.

committee, asked that gifts for the veterans be brought at the first meeting in December.

Mrs. Mildred Schoepel, public welfare chairman, will be in charge of the program at the next meeting on Nov. 28.

Mrs. Lennie Baxter was a visitor.

BG Beta Sigma Phi Confers Degrees

Exemplar degrees were conferred upon Mrs. Harold Zump, Mrs. R. T. Bell and Mrs. James E. Williams at last week's meeting of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority in Belle Glade held at the home of Mrs. Robert Mathews. Mrs. George Wedgworth was co-hostess. Mrs. Frank Anderson, sorority president, presided over the ritual.

During the business session, a letter was read thanking the organization for its contribution to the Florida Farm Colony at Gainesville.

It was reported that the sorority sweet shop booth at the annual PTA Halloween Carnival netted $71.50 for the PTA.

Facts About The OLYMPICS

Ancient Olympics were held every 4 years in Greece to honor Zeus, the "god of gods." Started in 776 B.C., they lasted for 11 centuries. They were open to all law-abiding Greek freemen. Tests included chariot racing, foot racing, discus.

Baron Pierre de Coubertin was founder of the modern Olympics. He felt that they could help build international friendship and understanding. The games were revived in 1896 amid world-wide acclaim.

Celebrated every 4 years since—except during the two great wars—the first of the modern Olympics was held in Athens. The 1900 Olympics were held in Paris, St. Louis 1904, London 1908, Stockholm 1912, Antwerp 1920, Paris 1924, Amsterdam 1928, Los Angeles 1932, Berlin 1936, London 1948, Helsinki 1952.

Democratic Australia, where the 1956 Olympics are held, has been in every Olympiad of the modern era—a record shared only by Great Britain, the U.S. and Greece.

Australians have spent nearly $15 million to welcome the world's athletes and make the games the greatest of modern times. Melbourne's huge Stadium, shown above, can accommodate more than 100,000 people and is one of the finest in the world. Today, Australia is a fully independent member of the British Commonwealth and has built her weight into every battle for freedom. She has neither sought nor taken dollar aid at any time, nor asked any favors from any other country. Melbourne, the second largest city, is a busy metropolis of 1,600,000 people, and is a beautiful city of parks and gardens.

The real purpose of the Book of Genesis, Mr. Statesman explained, is not to teach scientific facts but to tell us how God wants men to live in the world He created, and how the highest beliefs of the Jewish religion can help men to bring out the best within themselves and achieve a happy and worthwhile life.

"Thank God For America—Our New Home!"

This thankful Hungarian family of fourteen offered a prayer of thanksgiving as they sat down together recently for their first dinner in their new home in Chicago. One of the largest family groups to immigrate to the United States under provisions of the Refugee Relief Act of 1953, the father's visa represented the 30,000th person to come to this country under auspices of Catholic Relief Services-National Catholic Welfare Conference. It brought the overall total of homeless refugees resettled by the agency in free countries throughout the world since 1943 to 200,000, marking the greatest effort of any voluntary agency.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Bela Roman with twelve of their fifteen children ranging in age from 3 years to 25. Three daughters remained in France—two of them nuns and one married. With the assistance of the Hungarian Catholic League a home and job assurance have been provided for the family.

Roman, who is 58, and his 48-year-old wife, Elisabeth, fled with their eleven children to Germany from their native Hungary in 1944, when Russian troops entered the country. Their flight was prompted by the father's fear of communist reprisals. As a young man, in the Hungarian Royal Army in which he served 23 years, he had taken an active part in the 1919 uprising against the communist regime of Bela Kun. Their nomadic existence finally took them to Vosges, France, from which place they immigrated.

Here they will begin a new life eagerly awaiting the day they can become American citizens. Mrs. Roman stated, "It was only the grace of God that let us rear our family through these years."

PAHOKEE HOST TO BELLE GLADE IN THANKSGIVING EVE FINALE

The traditional rivalry between the football teams of Pahokee and Belle Glade will explode anew next week as the two teams meet face to face in Pahokee on Thanksgiving Eve.

Kick-off time will be Wednesday at 8:15 p.m., and the largest crowd of the season is expected to overflow Pahokee's Lair Field for the game which will be the finale for both teams.

On the basis of win-loss records on the winning season, Belle Glade will enter the game a slight favorite. But past performance usually means little in Golden Ram-Belle Devils battles, as each usually is "up" to scalp its Glades neighbor.

Cosch Jim Maynor's Belle Glade team has a record of five wins, two losses and a tie with Clewiston. Among its victims are Lake Worth and Ft. Pierce, teams which beat Pahokee.

Cosch Web Pell's Pahokians have taken the measure of Seacrest, which Belle Glade also beat, and Okeechobee. Losses were, among others, to Stuart and Vero Beach. The unbeaten teams which also beat Belle Glade.

Pell has a club of stout-hearted lads who are highly respected for their defensive play. They lost to Vero Beach last week, 13-20, holding the courted Suncoast champs to a single first down during the last half, and threatening to pull an upset.

The Blue Devil offense has spluttered this year, but it jelled somewhat against Vero, with passing mixed with plunging by Richard Weeks and Weldon Cardin accounting for yardage.

Fans will see one of the conference's best twin offensive backs in the personages of Belle Glade's B. B. Braddock and Leon Burkett. Featured in the line are All-Conference Ken Norris, who has been shifted to tackle, and Earl Hamilton, a fine defensive end.

Maynor's team is host tonight against St. Theresa's of Ft. Lauderdale, but it is a non-conference battle and he is expected to use his battered players sparingly to have them available against Pahokee. Fullback Lou Friedheim is completely out of action, as is Back Phil Crant. Crant is expected to see limited action against Pahokee, as is John Prevatt, a star tackle.

Pell's Pahokians took on Pompano last night without the services of three regulars — Guard Charley Holley, Center Harry Sheppard and Back Clyde Alley. There is some hope that Holley and Sheppard will recuperate from injuries sufficiently to see action against Belle Glade.

The game will conclude the prep grid careers of all Belle Glade starters except Billy Abel and Ronnie Kirchmah. Blue Devils slinging their swan song in the game will be Max Beverly, Ray Waddell, Eugene Pearce, Ronnie Hitchcock, Charley Hayes, Earl Meredith and Weldon Cardin.

The game will be something of a "homecoming" for Cosch Maynor, as he coached at Pahokee several years ago, returning to the Glades this year as head mentor at Belle Glade.

Winner of the game will also claim the Bill Young Memorial Trophy, originally named for the Pahokee Lion who initiated it to promote good relationship and good sportsmanship between the two Glades schools and communities.

The Young Trophy is sponsored by Lions Clubs in both Belle Glade and Pahokee, and has been in the possession of the Blue Devils for the past three years.

The two schools have a football rivalry dating back to 1943. Pahokee has won six games to Belle Glade's five, with two tie contests.

tions. You may now enclose a letter in a package if you desire. Simply write "letter enclosed" on the face of the package near the address, and pay an extra 3 cents postage for the letter in addition to parcel post charges.

The second change is that you may also, now seal parcel post packages without subjecting them to first class postage. The endorsement that these "may be opened for postal inspection" is now unnecessary.

Pack and wrap your gift parcels securely. Always remember that, if a gift is worth buying and giving, it is worth a little care in packing so that it will reach its destination undamaged.

If you wrap your gifts in "Christmas Paper" wrap them on the outside with heavy wrapping paper, and seal with heavy gummed tape, or tie with heavy twine, or both. Many packages are lost each year because of flimsy wrappings which tear off in transit.

We sincerely wish everyone a happy holiday season, and will enjoy a Merry Christmas ourselves if the mailing public will follow the above suggestions.
